WHAT WILL YOU DO

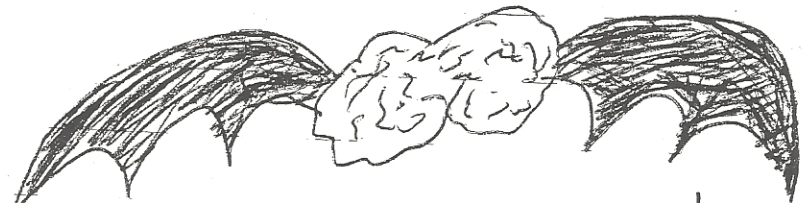

EVIL MARTIAN MONKEY

I'm going to get that little armless elf, if it's the last thing I do. He's so fat and juicy. He will make an excellent meal. And I will eat him. Little fat elves are a delicacy on Mars where I come from. I will stalk the universe to find him. Poke him. I will. In the stomach. To feel his juicy belly to squish. Never will a shopping cart get in my way. Step on his head and pull it off. Then drink his succulent belly juice. I can hardly wait. Will you help me find him?

brain bat

I've got to stay away from the evil Martian Monkey or he'll eat me. He's such a nasty old monkey. He knocked over my shopping cart once and stepped on my head. I hope he never finds me. I've got to stay away from him. I don't want him to get me. Oh poor me. What am I going to do? He keeps chasing me all over the place. I got no arms to fight with. So all I can do is run. I run away from him. Will you save me? Did I mention a brain bat got my arms?

This CD (NOT CD-R) was made by me - it's brand new factory sealed - I used mostly cheap keyboards like you'd buy from Chinese people - also tape recorders homemade tape loops - Most of these tracks were live reloaded in my room and at my friends house and are instrumentals as well as me singing - I tried to make some sound like songs you'd hear maybe on the radio & want to dance to - but many are more like noise with beats that may + end to annoy your Aunt Sally Limited number made so get yours while they last
